COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

THURSDAY EVENING, Nov. 9.

QUIET as business on the average still continues to be, there are not wanting some few indications of an approaching turn for the better. In produce for instance movements are on a moderate scale and transactions for future delivery comparatively limited, still Freights have experienced a very decided improvement during the week, the rate for Liverpool recovering from 12s. 6d. to 18s. 9d., and this could not come about without business being behind it in some shape or other. In the same way money is nominally unaltered in value, but neither the Presidency nor the Exchange banks are so full of funds as they were, and Exchange on London does not give way notwithstanding lower quotations for Bar Silver. The fact is that with new Cotton beginning to arrive in marketable parcels and fair supplies of Wheat and other produce available we are rapidly working up to a point at which, so far as local surroundings go, a very considerable scale of exports would be practicable were the European markets favorable. That they are not so, constitutes the restraining influence at the moment, but after the elections in England are over there is a general disposition to anticipate a better state of things especially if the hostilities in the Danubian principalities are localised.

MONEY.—The last weekly return of the Bank of Bombay showed a further reduction of nearly 12½ lakhs in the Cash Balance. Of this only 2½ lakhs were due to trade wants the remainder being accounted for by withdrawals from the Government Deposits. Still the mere fact that no portion of the previous weeks heavy withdrawals had found its way back to the bank would apparently indicate an increased demand for money which the current state of business scarcely accounts for. Rates of discount, however, are unaltered the official bank minimum being 4 and the outside market rate 2 per cent per annum. The position of the Bank of Bombay now shows the following comparison with the corresponding date last year :—

	1885.	1884.
Government Balances	32½ lakhs.	50½ lakhs.
Deposits	237 ,,	233½ ,,
Government Securities	41½ ,,	50½ ,,
Loans	22 ,,	29 ,,
Bills Discounted	165 ,,	146 ,,
Cash Balance	166½ ,,	178½ ,,

EXCHANGE.—For some weeks past the fluctuations in sterling have been lessening materially both in extent and frequency, but it is a long time since we have had a week in which the movements have been so slight as the past. Bank Bills have declined 1-32d., and for future delivery private bills have been more or less saleable at times, but the ready quotation for 3 months' sight Credits has remained at 1s. 6d. throughout. Considering that Bar Silver in London in the interval has declined from 47½d. to 47 5-16d. per oz., and that the biddings for Council drafts yesterday only brought out buyers at 1s. 6 5-32d. as compared with 1s. 6 7-32d. on the previous Wednesday, the position is somewhat remarkable. The rise in the Bank of England rate of discount to 3 per cent. no doubt accounts for a portion of the difference, but what mainly contributes to the steadiness we think is the feeling that unless the Bland Act in America is repealed we have now about seen the worst of the fall, while the Banks on the other hand being fairly provided with funds in proportion to their wants are not disposed to speculate on a rise. The closing quotations for ready bills to-day are :—

Bank Bills on demand	.....	1s. 6 5-32d.	per rupee.
Do.	Telegraphic Transfer	1s. 6¼d.	,,
Do.	3 months' sight	1s. 6 9-32d.	,,
Do.	4 ,,	1s. 6 5-16d.	,,
Do.	6 ,,	1s. 6d.	,,
Credits	3 ,,	1s. 6d.	,,
Do.	6 ,,	1s. 6 9-16d.	,,
Documents	3 ,,	1s. 6 13-32d.	,,
Do.	6 ,,	1s. 6 9-16d.	,,
Francs	3 ,,	193f.	,,
Do.	4 ,,	193f.	,,

The extent of business done during the week has not been large either in ready or forward paper. The Banks decline to draw better than 1s. 6 7-32d. for demand February delivery and at times have been chary about buying 3 months' Credits for all January delivery at 1s. 6¾d. On Tuesday indeed 1s. 6 13-32d. was actually done, and that is now the quotation up to the middle of February 1s. 6 7-16d. to 15-32d. for March and 1s. 6¾d. per rupee for April-May.

The total amount of Council drafts sold in London during the week ending on Tuesday evening was Rs. 32,60,000. The shipments of Silver advised by Reuter for the week are £50,000 for Bombay and £20,000 for Calcutta, and for Bombay there are £20,000 in gold. The position of the Mint is as follows :—

	Rs.
Value of Silver in the Mint on 9th Nov.	22,11,158
Silver received during the week	4,33,351
	26,44,507
New Coin paid during the week	9,50,220

The movements of Cotton to date show the following comparisons with the two previous years :—

The following are to-day's quotations for fully-pressed Cotton with the equivalents in Sterling, Cost and Freight to Liverpool, via Canal, without commission :—

Do. Dhollera	April	,, 185	4¾d.

WHEAT.—The drop in Freights in the early part of the week brought out more buyers of ready stuff and prices were in some cases advanced As. 4 per candy. The home demand continuing slack, however, this has since been lost, and we close very quiet at the following spot prices :—No. 1 Soft White Pessy Rs. 25½ to Rs. 26½, Jubbulpore Rs. 24½ to Rs. 25½, Hard Yellow Rs. 26 to Rs. 26½, Soft Red Rs. 25 to Rs. 25½, Khatha Rs. 21 to Rs. 21½, No. 1 Club Delhi Rs. 25 to Rs. 25½ per candy. In New No. 1 Soft White for April-May delivery some business has been done during the week at Rs. 3-15 to Rs. 3-15 6 per cwt. railway terms. Arrivals continue larger than last year, but by no means so heavy as the stocks believed to be up-country would warrant.

SEEDS.—Linseed is now in comparatively limited supply and the business doing both in old ready and new for future delivery is very limited. We quote ready Rs. 6-11½ April-May Rs. 5-14 per cwt. The same remarks apply to Rapeseed which meets a very poor demand. Yellow Guzerat we quote nominally at Rs. 6-1 ready, Rs. 5-15 per cwt. April-May. In Gingelly there is a most limited quantity passing for the time of year. Not only are arrivals here small keeping up prices, but the home demand is most limited. Quotations are :—White Rs. 35 to Rs. 35½, Mixed Rs. 34½ per candy.

The comparative imports of Wheat and Seeds are as follows :—

Standing crops have been damaged by insects in parts of Panch Mahals and by blight in parts of Satara. Cholera and small pox prevail in parts of six, fever in parts of twelve, and cattle-disease in parts of nine districts.

A RESOLUTION has been issued in which the Governor in Council trusts that district officers and the Commissioner of Police, Bombay, have taken steps to deter intending pilgrims from visiting Pandharpore for the Kartiki fair on account of the presence of cholera.

THE Resolution of the Government of Bombay on the Chief Engineer's report on the progress of irrigation in the Presidency is a model of brevity. It merely says that the progress reported is satisfactory. The Chief Engineer's report, we may add, states that the area applied for shows an increase of 8,022 acres as the compared with provious year, and an increase of 12,269 acres on the corresponding figures for 1883-84. Of this increase 13,022 acres (2,953 acres are due to the Nira Canal, which was opened on the 15th June 1885, vide Chief Engineer's memorandum No. 1399, dated 13th May 1885, and the rest, viz., 5,070 acres, are made up of general increase on almost all the other works. The increase on the two works in Gujarat is probably due principally to the deficient rainfall, and considering the copious fall of rain during the season, as compared with last year in the other parts of the Presidency, the increase on the other works is satisfactory. The report brings to notice that the supply in all the tanks in operation, with the exception of the Hartala Tank, was excellent on the 15th October, many being quite full and some running over ; and that the Ashti Tank received a good replenishment from the heavy rain which fell late in the season. It remarks, however, that there is again a total failure of supply in the Muchkundi Tank.

AN interesting case is shortly to occupy the attention of the Small Cause Court of Madras, in which the passengers in the s. s. Eldorado, which was wrecked off the Spanish Coast, in February last claims compensation for lost luggage. The plaintiff is Mr. John Albert Maddox, L. R. C. P. and S. Edin ; and he seeks to recover the sum of Rs. 1,321. He attributes the loss to the negligence, wrongful acts, and default of the defendant's servants. The plaintiff being about to leave Madras to take up an appointment in Umballa, and the day fixed for the hearing of the suit not having yet arrived, was examined on the 6th inst. de bene esse, before Mr. Maskell, at the Small Cause Court, on the 6th inst.

IT is stated in the Madras Government's Administration Report P. W. D. for 1884-85 that the project for excavating a ship canal through the island of Ramesvaram has not yet been finally matured, but it has advanced another step since the date of the last Administration Report. The promoters, Messrs. Grindrod, Jenkins, and Company, have obtained an exhaustive report on the scheme from Sir John Coode, who has recommended a slightly altered alignment from that originally proposed. The canal, as now suggested, will run across the island in an oblique direction, providing for an improved sheltering of the entrances, and for bringing the course of vessels passing through it more directly in line of the winds, both in the north-east and south-west monsoons. The total length of the canal, as proposed by Sir John Coode, will be a little over two miles, and the cost is estimated at about £370,000. In framing his report, Sir John Coode had the advice of the most experienced captains of the Peninsular and Oriental, and British India Steam Navigation Companies, who considered, with him, that there would be no difficulties in the way of navigation, and that the undertaking would be of great advantage to the trade of India. The promoters further asked for a concession to construct a line of railway from Madura to a point near the proposed canal, and another line from the canal to Tuticorin ; and were informed in reply that the Madras Government would be prepared to consider their proposals on receipt of definite information as to the financial prospects of the lines.

THE affairs of Bikanir may soon demand the attention of Government. As long as Pundit Maujhul, C.S.I., was Prime Minister, things seem to have gone on very well in that Hindu State, but an up-country paper says that since the appointment of a Mahomedan Devan, considerable dissatisfaction is said to prevail, possibly even among his co-religionists, who form one-seventh of the population. "If a high-caste ex-official were sent by Government to Bikanir, the step would no doubt be hailed with satisfaction by all ; and the Raja might be warned that, in case of misgovernment, the privilege of having a Prime Minister of his own faith or race would be withdrawn."

MR. HOLT HALLETT, in a letter to the Times, says :—"There is a strip of territory, 180 miles in breadth, lying between the frontier of Tongking, as claimed by the French, and any portion of the Burmese Shan States. Not only is this the case, but M. Dupuis says :—At Loakai (the westernmost frontier post claimed by the French) commence the forests, inhabited by independent people, which extend to below Kouence. Therefore nearly the whole of the hilly district between the Tongking Delta and the Luang Prabang boundary at Laokai was not in the possession of the Annamites at the time the French annexed Tongking. Again, although the French have declared their intention of occupying the country as far west as Laokai, no attempt has as yet been made in this direction, and, judging from the difficulties encountered in and on the fringe of the delta, and from the terrible unhealthiness of this hilly district and the turbulent character of the inhabitants, I cannot believe that the French will ever seriously endeavour to conquer, much less occupy, this region."

FROM a Blue-book just issued, relative to the British army, it appears that during last year there were 12,493 soldiers tried by courts-martial, and as all were found guilty and punished, there seems very little uncertainty about military, whatever there may be about civil, law. As might be expected, drunkenness is the cause of most crime in the service, still few will be prepared to hear that there were eleven per cent. more men tried for being drunk on duty than for drunkenness only. "The whole military code," Truth remarks, "is exactly the same now as it was when William III. reigned. Some change has taken place of late years in the punishments to be awarded for certain offences, but the wording of the Mutiny Act and of the Articles of War is practically unaltered. It is scandalous that while the civil law of England has been remodelled again and again within the past two centuries, that by which our soldiers are governed should still remain in its ancient state of barbarism.

THE Government Gazette contains draft rules proposed to be made under sec. 24 of the Indian Steamships Act, 1884, to regulate the making of surveys of steamships at the port of Bombay. Fees, varying from Rs. 40 for steamships of 25 tons to Rs. 145 for those not exceeding 1,500 tons, will be charged for certificates of survey, which will remain in force for one year, and which will cover three visits of a surveyor.

THE emancipated woman has been practically asserting her right to equality with man in Russian Poland. The Kurier, of Warsaw, has an account of a duel between a lady and a gentleman. The latter had offered the lady his hand, which she refused, whereupon he spread abroad reports injurious to her good name. Several gentlemen came forward in a knightly manner, and volunteered to avenge her by challenging her calumniator to a duel. She replied that if a duel was required in order to vindicate her honour, she conceived that she had a right and title to be one of the principals. The strong-minded damsel prided herself upon being a good shot, and resolved to punish her traducer, but not to injure him mortally. She sent him a challenge ; he accepted it, and the duellists met in a place outside Warsaw. Happily both missed their aim. The lady wanted to fire a second time ; but her second assured her that full reparation had been made. Her adversary was so moved by her masculine gallantry that he made her a formal apology, which she accepted.

STUDENTS of the curious will await with some interest the result of a lawsuit which is about to be heard in Paris. It appears that the Duke of Castile was, in 1604, Spanish Ambassador to England, and on his return home was presented by King James I. with a gold cup, as a token of the royal appreciation of great services the Spaniard had rendered to the Crown The cup is described as being no larger than an ordinary creampitcher. It is of solid gold, and of exquisite workmanship, and is set with precious stones, and further ornamented with some very fine enamels. The value of this little gem is now said to be something over £8,000. The pious Ambassador, on his death, left the precious cup to the Convent of Medina de Pomar, near Burgos, making the stipulation that on no account whatever was the treasure to be sold, or even lent. In event of such being done, the cup itself, and many other gifts presented to the convent, were to revert to the duke's successor at the time. Two years ago Baron Picho announced to the Duke de Frias that he had come into possession, through a Spaniard, of such a cup. Inquiries were set on foot, and, after some prevarication and evasion, the Abbess of Medina de Pomar confessed that she had sold the cup. It now rests with the Paris lawyers to discuss whether or not the abbess has exceeded her rights, and also whether the Duke de Frias can make good his claim to the valuable curio.

IT is considered probable that the 43rd Assam Light Infantry, at Kohima, may be sent forward to the frontier to guard against any insursion of the Burmese in that direction. Colonel Cubitt, the Commandant of the regiment, is also commanding at Kohima. From the Manipur frontier there is an open road leading straight on to Mandalay, which is distant about two hundred miles.

THE Dutch authorities at Batavia have suddenly stopped the publication of the well-known paper the Java Bode, because of the publication of articles tending to make the natives believe that the Europeans were in dread of a cholera outbreak. The stoppage of the paper was effected by the Resident, Assistant Resident, and three policemen entering the printing office of Messrs. Van Dorp & Co., turning out all the workmen, and sealing up all the doors of the office. At the same time a notice was served on the firm, declaring that they would not be allowed any longer to carry on the business of printers and publishers of newspapers. The firm have given notice that they intend to appeal to the Governor of Netherlands India against the arbitrary acts of the local authorities.

A GERMAN spy has been arrested at Lyons while in the act of taking plans of the fortifications. He was taken before the authorities, and subjected to a long examination, and subsequently he was escorted to the frontier by the gendarmes. The incident has provoked a good deal of indignation in the town, and indeed generally, as attempts of this kind have been somewhat frequent of late.

THE Northumberland Fusiliers, better known perhaps as the "Fighting Fifth," are improving in the matter of promotion ; and before long the majors will have nothing to complain of, their length of service becoming much the same as in other corps. Colonel E. I. Oldfield, on reaching the age of 50, when still a regimental major, has been placed on the half-pay list as a lieutenant-colonel. He entered the service in 1855, and counts a year for Lucknow. Colonel Oldfield has certainly reason to complain of his bad luck in not rising higher than senior major : he is a full colonel by brevet of July, 1884, and has served for over thirty years in the 5th Fusiliers, doing good service in the Mutiny, when he was wounded at the relief of Arrah, obtaining two clasps to his medal ; and he was also at the relief and capture of Lucknow, being twice mentioned in despatches. Major Beamish now becomes senior major, and loses less service. Within the next three months this regiment will have two more vacancies, this time amongst the lieutenant-colonels. In fact, the command of both battalions will be vacant—the one now at Mean Meer on the 29th of January, 1886, on Colonel Harkness reaching 55, and the 1st Battalion on the 22nd of February, when Colonel Macdonald completes his four years in command.

Holloway's Pills are the medicine most in repute for curing the multifarious maladies which attack humanity, when wet and cold weather gives place to more genial temperature, for in short these Pills afford relief if they fail of being an absolute remedy in all the disturbances of circulation, digestion, and nervous energy, which at times oppress a vast portion of the population. Under the wholesome, purifying, and strengthening powers exerted by these excellent Pills, the tongue becomes clean, the appetite improves, digestion is quickened, and assimilation rendered perfect. Holloway's medicine possesses the highly estimable property of cleansing the whole mass of blood, which, in its renovated condition, carries purity, strength, and vigour to every tissue of the body.

THE MATRICULATION EXAMINATION.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—I entirely agree with the proposal made by your correspondent "Malo mori quam fedari," who suggests that all students who have to submit themselves to the Matriculation test of our University should be asked to come down to Bombay, but, at the same time, I may say that there would be a check placed upon the yearly growing number of candidates at the said examination, should the University authorities rule that those alone should come up to the Matriculation test who have to prosecute their studies at any of the affiliated colleges or take to law studies, since as to others who wish to enter into Government service, there is a provision made by Government in opening the higher and lower standard Public Service Examinations for them.

A SALSETTE GRIEVANCE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—Referring to the proposal for constructing approaches to the ferry plying across the Ambavni creek in Dharavi, Salsette, it is a matter of sincere regret that only a sum of Rs. 1,000 has been recommended to be sanctioned for the purpose of carrying the present branch line at Borivli onward, because the amount referred to is utterly inadequate to remove or even minimise the evils so often complained of. Meanwhile the trade and industries of the Dharavi Island will remain, as usual, in a state of stagnation, for the sum of Rs. 1,000 will not be the means of opening an outlet to the produce of the soil. The traders concerned in the exportation of various articles must rejoice at the turn affairs have taken with regard to the island, because they have ample prospects of taking advantage of the helplessness of the cultivators in disposing off the fruits of the soil. I sincerely trust that approaches will be made to the Ambavni creek, as by the execution of this project carts laden with goods can be transported across the channel by means of a tarafa ferry, the water at that point being comparatively very shallow and the effects of the weather almost nil. Moreover, the current of the sea is hardly felt.

BENEVOLENT NEUTRALITY.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—Allow me to ask the police authorities, whether it comes under the province of a police sepoy to arrest a ruffian ill-treating a woman of his caste. The facts are as follows :—Whilst returning home from my evening walk I witnessed a scene on the Nepean Sea-road, which greatly moved my feelings. A drunkard came beating and bullying a poor woman. I went up to him, and tried to prevent him, but he threatened me with his fist, As the police sepoy was not at a great distance, I thought it better to follow the drunkard to the sepoy doing duty at the foot of Mr. P. M. Mehta's bungalow. I asked the sepoy to arrest the man ; but he happened to be the man's friend, as he called out to him by the name of "Lucksia ;" but Mr. Lucksia only answered, "I care not for the sepoy or for the police." In the presence of the sepoy the man once more made use of his hands on the woman. What was the sepoy doing ? He was in full training from the drunkard to me, and from me to the drunkard. About this time came up an Englishman, who asked me what was up, and advised me to make use of my stick on the man. Let me ask the authorities,—Ought not the sepoy to have taken some parties into custody ? As this is the fourth occasion that I have witnessed such a scene, I bring it to the notice of the police authorities.

THE TANSA WATER-SUPPLY.

THE Tansa water-supply scheme was finally sanctioned by the Bombay Corporation at their meeting yesterday. When the subject was under discussion on the last occasion, Dr. Blaney moved that the Municipal Commissioner be requested to solicit the sanction of Government for raising a loan of Rs. 15,300,000 for carrying out the work, and at the same to time to convey to Government the earnest hope of the Corporation that the capital required for this important public purpose might be advanced by them on the most favourable terms possible. The resolution further endorsed a recommendation made by Mr. Ollivant that the Government might be asked to lengthen the time of the repayment of the remaining portion of the Vehar debts, so as to extend it over the period during which the Tansa debt was to run. The last recommendation was made without any prejudice to the memorial addressed to the Secretary of State on the subject of the amount of interest which the Corporation think they are bound by agreement to pay to Government in connection with the Vehar loan. Before the discussion was adjourned, the Hon. Mr. Mandlik proposed an amendment, calling for satisfactory data as to the financing of the scheme before the work was taken in hand. When the subject was resumed yesterday, the Hon. Dadabhai Naoroji took exception to the portion of Dr. Blaney's proposition relating to an extension of the period of the repayment of the Veh abandoned and the guarantors be released from further liability and obligations.

7. We request the favour of this letter being circulated to the general and executive committees and to the guarantors generally.

8. We beg to add that we have forwarded a copy of this letter for the information of His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor in Council.

The memorial has been signed by Sir Mangruldas Nathoobhoy, Messrs. D. M. Petit, N. M. Petit, the Hon. Rao Saheb V. N. Mandlik, Mr. Framjee Nusserwanjee Patel, and several others.

The chairman then continued. Gentlemen.—I am not going to attempt a criticism of the reasons stated in this memorial for abandoning the project of the exhibition. You have heard those reasons, and you must judge for yourselves of their weight and cogency. But there is only one remark which I should like to make, and that is that if I had been requered to sign this memorial to the Executive Committee, I should in the first place have asked that one sentence in that document should be omitted. It is this:—"The charges for mere establishments are set down at two lakhs of rupees—an enormous amount considering the work to be done, and presumably intended to provide comfortably paid billets for a permanent staff on very high salaries from the present time up to the closing of the exhibition." I consider that the quality and the character of the European and native gentlemen upon the Executive Committee were quite a sufficient guarantee to the guarantors that their funds would not be trifled with, and that the utmost prudence and caution would be exercised in administering them. (Hear, hear.) That memorial has been signed by 68 names; but 58 of these have signed the bond, and the total amount of their subscriptions comes to Rs. 1,81,000. On the other hand, there is a large majority of guarantors, representing a sum of over fifteen lakhs of rupees, have not signed the memorial. Therefore, the memorial, though it contained one or two influential names, was really unimportant. At the time when this memorial was being circulated, a great number of guarantors came to me personally with the object of ascertaining whether or not they should sign it. My answer to them was always the same. I said, "if you want an exhibition, you need not sign; but if you don't want an exhibition, you must sign." I had a good deal of conversation with many of them, and the impression left on my mind was that a number of gentlemen, both European and native, did not quite like the idea of abandoning the exhibition. They did not quite like the idea that, after all the trouble that had been taken, the project should be given up and that the labour should go for nothing. At the same time, it was evident that they would not be at all sorry if they were relieved of their liability, and the bond were cancelled. Speaking for myself—and I have taken an interest from the first in the exhibition—and also for those gentlemen who have been associated with me, I may say that we think nothing of the trouble. We undertook the work in the belief that it was an idea popular with the community, and that the community strongly desired the exhibition. Now, if the guarantors say that they do not desire it, I and those working with me would be glad to give up up the project at once, as our object is simply to carry out the wishes of the guarantors,—the wishes of all those who had undertaken to meet any deficiencies that might arise. On Monday last I received a letter from Ahmedabad, asking what the present position of affairs was, and saying, "We do not think it advisable that the responsibility of the guarantors should continue for an indefinite period, and therefore fully concur with our brother guarantors of Bombay that the scheme should be abandoned altogether, at least for the present, and the guarantors be released from further liability and obligations." This letter was signed by guarantors in Ahmedabad whose subscriptions amount to Rs. 40,000. I at once telegraphed to Mr. Premabhai Hemabhai, the principal subscriber, and told him of this meeting, so that if he wished to have a representative here to take part in the discussion he could do so. I got his answer this morning, as follows: "Message received. Guarantors desire that they should be released from further liability and obligations regarding guarantee." Again, late last night and early this morning, I was flooded with printed circular letters, expressing concurrence with the views contained in the memorial that the exhibition project should be abandoned. The total number of those who signed the circular is 88, representing a sum of Rs. 2,17,000. So that altogether there are 155 guarantors, representing Rs. 4,38,000, not in favour of the exhibition, out of a total of 414 guarantors, representing Rs. 15,57,000, who signed the bond. That is exactly the position we stand in to-day. We are to decide to-day whether we shall go before the Government and ask them to guarantee a sum of twelve lakhs, or whether we consider that the general sense of the community—of the guarantors and those interested in the exhibition—is that the project should at once be finally given up. The matter is entirely in your hands, and I shall be glad to see those who are against and in favour of the exhibition take this opportunity of expressing their views. (Applause.)

Mr. G. Land said he was, perhaps, not publicly known that he had taken a very great deal of interest in the exhibition. He thought of putting before them a resolution asking them to carry on the scheme; but, after what the chairman, he believed there was no hope of carrying such a proposition. He was exceedingly sorry that the exhibition was going to be abandoned,—that after all the fuss which had been made about it, they should now run away with their tails between their legs and play second fiddle to Calcutta. If they wished to do so, they had better withdraw the proud motto from their escutcheon, and leave it to be assumed by some other city more worthy of it. He thought that in all probability the deficit, if any at all, would be very slight, and that the project could be successfully carried through. He was of opinion that a Government guarantee was indispensable. Last year, while he was in Europe, he made inquiries of a great number of manufacturers both in England and France, and they all agreed in saying that they would have nothing to do with an exhibition which was not held under the immediate auspices of Government. The speaker concluded by moving "that the guarantee bond having failed to recommend itself as a sufficient security to our local banks, Government be asked to guarantee the necessary funds, and to provide the same departmental assistance as was given to the Calcutta Exhibition by the Bengal Government. 2nd. That the Viceroy, the Earl of Dufferin, be asked to become patron as representing the Queen. 3rd. That our own Governor, Lord Reay, be solicited to become president of the Executive Committee."

Mr. Cotton seconded the motion. He thought it would be a very great mistake if, after all the the trouble that had been taken to obtain the signatures to the bond, they should now withdraw from their position. The public had come forward to guarantee some sixteen lakhs of rupees, and if they once threw up the project, they must abandon the idea of an exhibition in Bombay for many, many years to come. A short time ago the Government of India had before them the Afghan question, and they had met with difficulties, the end of which could not then be foreseen. Moreover, in all parts of India they had been suffering from bad trade. But he thought that things had very considerably changed since. The great frontier question might be regarded as settled, and in spite of the trouble in Burmah, the prospect all over India, both political and commercial, was good. The time proposed for holding the exhibition was a very good one, and as a guarantor, he should not like to withdraw from his position. A good exhibition would help them very much, indeed. (Hear, hear.) It would help their industries; and there would be a large influx of money. If, therefore, they were called upon to pay 10 or even 20 per cent. of their subscriptions, they should cheerfully make the sacrifice, as it would be much more than compensated for by the advantages which they expected to derive. He thought, under the most unfavourable circumstances, they might be asked to pay a fourth of their guaranteed amount. Bombay being always so far ahead of other places, so pushing and so forward in every movement, should not withdraw from a work which they had under taken to perform. If they only obtained from Government the assistance which the Executive Committee asked them to give, and if they got a good Government officer and a good paid secretary to conduct the scheme, he believed there would not be the slightest chance of their losing any such amount as the memorialists imagined. If they could get the services of an officer like Mr. Ollivant, he was satisfied that the loss of 25 or 50 per cent. that was apprehended by some of them was not at all possible. (Hear, hear.)

The Hon. Rao Saheb V. N. Mandlik said that among those who had signed the memorial asking the committee to abandon the project of the exhibition there were men who followed the industrial and trade movements of the city quite as closely as the two previous speakers, and they were quite sure that the enterprise would prove far from successful, under existing circumstances. The proud inscription on their banner about Bombay being the first city in India ought to be given up in the least in the consideration of the question whether or not it would be advantageous to the city to hold the exhibition. His own impression was that when they were first asked to become guarantors it was virtually more a moral than a material guarantee which they had been asked to give. When they put down their signatures to the bond, no one ever imagined that they were passing a bond to Shylock (a laugh), which they should be obliged to fulfil against their wishes and against a reasonable probability that the undertaking would prove a success. Besides the great loss that they would have to meet, the guarantee bond made them jointly and severally liable for the deficiency, and therefore they might be held liable for defaulters who would not pay up their share. He was glad to hear that the Hon. Mr. Adam and those who worked with him were prepared to concede that an undertaking of this kind could only be carried through with the wish of the guarantors. (Applause). When so many as 155 guarantors came before the committee asking them to abandon the project, it must be supposed that they could not have made such a representation without good and substantial reasons. (Applause). Though not a merchant himself, he could not agree with the sanguine view of their commercial prospects laid before them by Mr. Cotton. They had been all very glad to learn that the great war on the frontier did not take place. But they knew that thirty more regiments had to be raised; and thirty regiments meant some crores of rupees. For these reasons, the speaker deprecated the idea of putting any pressure upon the Government to embark on the present undertaking, at a time when they had to stop much more important works and were practising the strictest economy in all the departments of State. They should not ask Government to undertake any responsibility in regard to a scheme whose success they themselves greatly doubted. He would say this on behalf of himself and those who had signed the memorial, that they had never intended, by any observation, to cast the slightest reflection on anybody. He believed that every one who had signed the memorial would disclaim all idea of casting a slur on anybody by making use of the expression to which the chairman had taken exception. (Hear, hear.) He did think it was fair to taunt the community of Bombay with being backward, because they had declined to assume far heavier responsibilities than had been anticipated at first. (Hear, hear.) With these remarks, the Rao Saheb moved an amendment that, in the present state of affairs, it was advisable to abandon the project of the exhibition and to cancel the guarantee bond.

Mr. Damodar Thakersey Muljee seconded the amendment.

The chairman said that before putting the amendment to the vote he would say that he frankly accepted the assurance of Mr. Mandlik, for himself and for those who had signed the memorial, that no slur was intended to be cast on the Executive Committee. (Applause.) As for the guarantors being made liable for defaulters, that point had been very elaborately discussed at a very fully attended and representative meeting in that room, and it was agreed by a majority that they should at least go to the guarantors and those who had promised subscriptions and say to them that they recommended them to accept the new proviso. Every one had been most carefully advised of the nature of the bond which they were signing. The chairman said he made this explanation because possibly Mr. Mandlik was not at that time in Bombay.

Rao Saheb Mandlik said he was fully satisfied with the explanation.

The amendment was here put to the vote, and carried by a large majority.

Mr. Mandlik then proposed a vote of thanks to the chairman, both for presiding on that occasion, as well as for the conscientious care with which he had discharged his duties throughout. (Loud applause.)

The chairman, in reply, said that although the exhibition scheme, which he believed would have been a good thing for Bombay, had collapsed, he hoped it would be held at some future date. Their kind expressions of good-will would show to those who might be engaged in a similar work hereafter that any efforts made for the public good, even if they should prove unsuccessful, would meet with a recognition from their fellow-citizens far beyond their merits. (Applause.)

TESTIMONIAL AS TO GOY'S PURCHASE HIRE SYSTEM M—R——d, MADRAS, 7th January, 1885.

Dear Sir,—I cannot tell you how pleased I am with the handsome Bicycle you have sent me, it arrived safely on Monday, 5th inst., by the s. s. Rollo. Please accept my best thanks for all the trouble you have taken in having it built for me. I tried it the first evening it arrived—and could have gone out for some miles enjoying the ride,—it has everything I want, and beautifully finished. I shall do my best in trying to get you some orders from my friends out here. My instalments will follow monthly, and you will occasionally hear how the machine is getting on. Thanking you again, and wishing you all the good wishes of the season. I remain, yours faithfully, C. H. H.
